Lifelock exposed again...Todd Davis, er, Richard Todd Davis

In this blog I will show you how unprotected you can be left by using Lifelock. I'm positive if you search the internet you won't see this much personal information and documentation about Todd Davis. Had he used our process, a one time fee, this information wouldn't have been located and this "public information" wouldn't have been able to be confirmed or found. Take a look.

Todd Davis uses only his middle and last name. This isn't really a secret in the google world but not publicized by Lifelock. His full name is, Richard Todd Davis with a SSN# 457-55-5462 and we know he lives inArizona..... So using ZabaSearch, a data base you can opt-out of, the following is found:

Not bad for a start. His complete name and address. Continue searching public databases you also find a disclaimer deed Todd Davis signed and this document also discloses his wife, Michelle Davis, someone who has managed to keep her information out of the spotlight.

This next document shows that Todd and Michelle set up their trust fund "the 2007 Davis Family Trust." Had they followed the Opt Out Detective instruction this information wouldn't have been located in public record. This is a great example of an error in the proper use of a trust fund by an "Identity Theft Expert."

So what to do with all of this public information? Let's google his home address. Below shows what his house looks like and the cross streets from overhead.

And if you use ..

Google street

.. view I think he should decorate a little more for Christmas. Nice blow-up's Todd!

So now you see how Todd Davis has failed to truly protect his personal information with the lack of details. The only thing not exposed yet is Todd Davis' true birth date. By checking more public record data bases we find that Todd Davis has had two photo radar citations and one other traffic complaint. Oh, if you look though you will see the court information indicated his birthday to be 1-17-1968.
